Built For Strength

Cummins Filtration, the new name change for Fleetguard Inc., is part of Cummins Inc.'s brand strategy to create one global brand with one global voice. By reducing the many existing subsidiary and organizational brands, Cummins can now communicate as One Company to employees, customers and stakeholders around the world by operating all of its businesses under the Cummins name. As Cummins Filtration, the filtration business unit offers customers a stronger brand to reflect the value and dependability of our products and services
